Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, we honor the millions of individuals who volunteer throughout the year and change the world, one act of kindness at a time; and

WHEREAS, volunteerism is a critical part of civic engagement; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the power of people to build more vibrant communities through volunteering the gifts of their time, energy, expertise and conviction; and

WHEREAS, volunteers are essential in tackling society's greatest challenges and helping build stronger, more connected communities through their everyday actions; and

WHEREAS, volunteers come together to create lasting change in the communities where they live and work; and

WHEREAS, volunteers are role models that not only have a positive impact on the communities and organizations they serve but inspire others to look within themselves to shine their own light; and

WHEREAS, Alabama residents who choose to help their neighbors by volunteering with faith-based, non-profit, national service, military service and community organizations support our most vulnerable populations; and

WHEREAS, Volunteer Month provides an opportunity to celebrate the impact that people have when they use their civic power to support causes they care about;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim April 2025, as

Volunteer Month

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 21st day of April 2025.

Kay Ivey
