

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, a cancer survivor is defined as anyone living with a history of cancer – from the moment of diagnosis through the remainder of life, and there are more than 16.9 million cancer survivors in America; and

WHEREAS, since the number of cancer survivors is projected to increase to 22.2 million by 2030, increased access to effective cancer treatments, quality survivorship care and necessary psychosocial resources must be a top priority in our community; and

WHEREAS, the great state of Alabama has a valuable, dynamic cancer survivor population; and

WHEREAS, on Friday, June 10, many of Alabama's cancer survivors will convene for a celebration of life; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the people of Alabama, I salute all cancer survivors and those who support them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim June 10, 2022, as

Cancer Survivors Day

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 9th day of June 2022.

Kay Ivey
