By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, manufacturing companies are vitally important to the prosperity of the state of Alabama; and

WHEREAS, a designated, celebratory day of Alabama manufacturing provides an opportunity to introduce state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities to a new generation of students, future workers and partnerships among manufacturing businesses and educational institutions at all levels to prepare students for manufacturing careers today; and

WHEREAS, Manufacturing Day demonstrates the reality of modern manufacturing careers by encouraging thousands of companies and educational institutions around the nation to open its doors to students, parents, teachers and community leaders; and

WHEREAS, as manufacturers seek to fill 4 million high-skill, high-tech and high-paying jobs over the next decade, Manufacturing Day will allow for manufacturers to come together to address collective challenges that can be solved to help communities and future generations thrive; and

WHEREAS, Manufacturing Day is an effective way to highlight the importance of manufacturing in our economy and draw attention to the many rewarding, high-skill jobs available in manufacturing; and

WHEREAS, in the future, Alabama is fortunate to be home to many great manufacturing businesses, some which are world leaders in their respective fields, and manufacturers in Alabama account for a percentage of the total output in the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 7, 2022, as
