Board: Southern Regional Education Board

Term: 4 Years

Senate Confirmable: Yes

Description: The Southern Regional Education Board's purpose is to improve education for young people and adults in every SREB state. SREB provides important, tangible services to member states, enabling them to share resources and achieve results together that would be impossible or impractical individually. SREB studies and reports on needs and problems that affect education; advises state government and education leaders, works with colleges and schools on specific efforts to improve quality; and serves as fiscal agent and administrator for interstate programs that benefit young people and adults in each member state.

Seat Restrictions: Each state must have at least one legislator and one educator in its representation. The Governor serves ex officio on the Board and appoints four other members during his term of office, one of which must be a member of the state legislature and one from the field of education. Appointments are made by the governor for four-year staggered terms. The terms for each member are four-year terms unless someone is being appointed to an unexpired term. A legislator's term on the Board is contingent upon his service in the Legislature. There is no limit on the number of terms a member may serve.
